

NEPHEW OF HILLIS BRINGS NEW SUIT FOR $50,000 LIBEL

Action Taken Here After
Failure to Adjust Trouble With Pastor.

All efforts toward a peaceable settlement of the difficulties between Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, and his two nephews, Percy and Henry M. Hillis, having failed, fresh hostilities broke out to-day, when Henry Hillis brought suit in the Supreme Court against Dr. Hillis for $50,000 damages for alleged libel.

William Levy of No. 60 Wall Street, who told an Evening World reporter that Henry Hillis, after waiting since last November for an adjustment of the troubles with his uncle, refused to wait longer and came all the way from his home in the State of Washington to force his illustrious uncle into court. After signing the summons in the case last week Henry Hillis started West. Mr. Levy was instructed to press the suit to a quick trial, he said, and disregard any further peace overtures.

Indications that the battle lines were being drawn were furnished by W. C. Beecher, attorney for Dr. Hillis, who immediately upon receiving the summons filed a notice of appearance in behalf of the noted divine.

Liner Stops to Search for Woman Who Leaped Overboard.
The Greek steamship Ioannina, which arrived from Piraeus last evening, reported that one of her stowage passengers, Concansia Savitch, a Serbian woman, had jumped overboard while the vessel was starting the Italian coast. The ship was stopped and lifeboats lowered, but no trace of the suicide could be found. The vessel brought 16 cabin and 265 stowage passengers.

ALAS! OLD DIOGENES DIED TOO SOON TO SEE THE ONE HONEST MAN

Eccentric Mrs. Jane Barney, Whose Will Is Contested, Believed Cashier Filled Role.

If some kind old friend of old pop Diogenes had been thoughtful enough to give him a dose of the elixir of life he would have lived to find the honest man he was looking for so long.

That paragon of honesty was mentioned to-day in Surrogate Coburn's court during the contest of the will of the late Jane E. Barney, aged widow of Hiram B. Barney, a former partner in the firm of H. B. Clafin & Company. He was described by William A. Condon of Summit, N. J., a moving picture man, a witness for the seventeen cousins of Mrs. Barney, who are contesting her will. Mrs. Barney left an estate valued at $500,000. The cousins claim Mrs. Barney was incompetent when she made her will.

Mr. Condon, who knew Mrs. Barney very well, said she trusted only one man.

"This man," said Mr. Condon, "was constantly spoken of by Mrs. Barney as 'the cashier.' She never mentioned his name in my presence. In her opinion he was the only honest man in the wide world. He looked after all her affairs."

"And do you know who that man is?" asked Jeremiah V. O'Leary, counsel for the contestants.

"I have good reason to believe it was William V. Knisk, then cashier of the Security Bank at Fourteenth Street and Fifth Avenue. He was a cousin of Mrs. Barney and had charge of all her affairs," was Mrs. Condon's reply.

"Did you ever see Mrs. Barney cutting the grass?" asked the lawyer.

"Yes under peculiar conditions," witness replied. "It was raining and she used a pair of scissors to do the trimming. They were dressmaker's scissors."

PRENDERGAST OFFICIAL BULLY, SAYS THOMPSON

Senator Also Takes a Fling at Ex-
Public Service Commissioner
Willcox.

(Special to The Evening World.)
ALBANY, N. Y., March 14.—Senator Thompson said in answer to a statement made in New York by Comptroller Prendergast:

"Prendergast is the official bully of New York. He ought to keep his mouth shut. I'll answer him tomorrow on the floor of the Senate. As for Willcox, he is an ex-Public Service Commissioner, graduated into an interborough lawyer, and probably successor to Quigg."

MR. WILLCOX EXPLAINS SHORTS SUBWAY LETTER.

Did Not Regard It as an Offer—
Not Approved by Interborough.

Ex-Chairman Willcox of the Public Service Commission in a letter to Senator Sage, explaining the shorts letter proposing to build subway and "L" extensions without cost to the city and saying:

"There was no proposition made by the Interborough company under date of March 22, 1910 (nor at any date near that time). For several months before March, 1910, Mr. Shonts, President of the Interborough company, and I had been conferring and negotiating with reference to an offer from his company which might be acceptable to the Public Service Commission."

"From time to time draft letters were made upon the various subjects which were to be embraced in any offer that was to be made, and the so-called letter of March 22 was a draft which was the result of several of these conferences, and while it was not acceptable in all respects to me as representing the views of the commission, I had hoped that Mr. Shonts would be able to present it as a tentative offer of the company."

"Within a day or two after this draft was made Mr. Shonts came to me and said that he had taken the matter up with his Executive Committee and that he did not favor any offer along the lines outlined in this draft. He said that he was not entirely discouraged, but that he would not submit the proposition to the Interborough Board as a whole. On his return from the West Mr. Shonts stated that he had the matter up again before his committee, but that the opposition still prevailed and that his committee would not favor such a proposition."

"The so-called letter, therefore, is really nothing more than a memorandum which was never submitted. Some months after I found the memorandum among my papers, and as it was in no sense a public document I placed it in an envelope and asked Mr. Whitney to put it in a safe for safekeeping. This was not because I considered it a public document, because it was not, and placed it there for my own convenience, and in no sense was the paper offered over to Mr. Whitney as Secretary of the commission."

$12,000 IN GEMS STOLEN.

Arrests are expected to-day in the robbery of the residence of Mrs. T. McDonald at Garden City, L. I., a week ago when jewelry valued at more than $12,000 was taken while Mrs. McDonald and her daughter were at dinner.

Among the jewelry was a $5,000 brooch set with five large diamonds and several smaller ones. A diamond lavaliere valued at $3,000 was also taken.

Mrs. McDonald engaged private detectives before notifying the police. She offered $1,000 reward yesterday for the return of the jewelry.

NOVELIST'S FORMER WIFE NAMED IN DIVORCE SUIT OF A GEORGIA BEAUTY

MILLEN, Ga., March 14.—The petition for divorce of Mrs. Winifred Wadley Raoul against her husband, William H. Raoul, has been assigned by Judge Henry C. Hammond for trial on Wednesday in the Jenkins County Superior Court.

A long amendment to the original petition was filed by the attorneys for Mrs. Raoul in which an additional charge of habitual drunkenness on the part of Raoul is made, and also a specific charge in which Mrs. Raoul charges her husband with Mrs. Sinclair, a former wife of Upton Sinclair, is named as co-respondent. Mrs. Raoul charges her husband with Mrs. Sinclair at a convention in Cleveland, that Mrs. Sinclair was a guest in her home on the invitation of her husband, when their conduct was not what she expected.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS PARADE IN PROTEST AT TEACHER'S REMOVAL

Sag Harbor Boys and Girls Resent Disciplining of Principal.

SAG HARBOR, N. Y., March 14.—Three hundred high school pupils paraded the streets last night as a protest against the removal of Grove Cleveland Hart, principal of the school. The demonstration was against Miss Rosa Bates, and William F. Eaton, a member of the school board. The parade followed a day of disorder in the school.

Pierston High School has been the beneficiary of Mrs. Russell Sage who has given it $120,000. Mr. Hart has been popular but he and Miss Bates have not agreed since she was elected to the board two years ago, the first woman to hold such a position.

ON THE WAITING LIST.

(From the Birmingham Age-Herald.)
"Now that young Spaworth has finished college, what does he expect to do?"

"He tells me that he hasn't decided yet what he will go into, but it will probably be some line of manufacturing."

"Yes."

"You see, he has notified the President of several large firms that he will consider offers of managerial positions and has promised not to make a move until he hears from them."

PUGILIST LOSES BOUT WITH CONFIDENCE MAN

Jeff Smith Falls for Ruse and Drops $145—Now He Wants a Return Match Without Gloves.

Jefferson Smith, known professionally as Jeff Smith, was on his way to the Pennsylvania Station at Desbrosses Street to-day to buy a ticket for St. Paul, where he is to box Michael Gibbons of that city and the County Mayo on St. Patrick's Day, when he was accosted at Cedar and Grove Streets by a Sicilian in distress.

Mr. Smith announced himself as a pugilist and offered his protection. At the stranger's suggestion he put his own money, $145, in with the stranger's who wrapped it in a handkerchief and entrusted it to Mr. Smith. Reaching the bunk, the stranger trustingly allowed Mr. Smith to go in with the money. When the package was undone and Mr. Smith discovered nothing but a bunch of wrapping paper the stranger was far, far away.

Mass Of White Dry Scales.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My eczema appeared as red blotches which became dry and scaly. My limbs and scalp were covered with these small spots which would sometimes itch until I became almost unbearable, scratching made these spots bleed and cause much pain, and I lost many nights' sleep on account of the incessant itching and burning. I spent many hours in torture. My hair came out in handfuls. My scalp was one mass of white dry and itching scales."

"Noting an advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment I decided to give them a trial. After a short while I was healed." (Signed) Miss Florence F. Schaefer, 607 Humboldt St., Brooklyn, N. Y., July 23, 1915.

The Smoke of Men Who Win

A fresh-rolled "Bull" Durham cigarette almost says "Speed up!" right out loud. Keen-eyed, clear-headed young fellows smoke "Bull" Durham because it has the sparkle and the "punch"—the youthful vim and vigor. Every time you "roll your own" with "Bull" Durham you open the door to Hustle.

GENUINE "BULL" DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO

"Bull" Durham is unique among the world's tobaccos. It is distinguished from all others by its wonderful mildness, its delicious mellow-sweet flavor and its distinctive aroma.

That's because it's made of the very choicest of rich, ripe Virginia-North Carolina "bright" leaf—the smoothest and mellowest tobacco in the world.

You get a lively smoke and a satisfying smoke when you "roll your own" with "Bull Durham."

FREE An Illustrated Booklet, showing correct way to "Roll Your Own" Cigarettes, and a package of cigarette papers, will both be mailed, free, to any address in U. S. on request. Address "Bull" Durham, Durham, N. C.

Come where music is understood as well as sold

THE selection of Columbia Records at Aeolian Hall is made particularly pleasant through the character of the salespeople who attend to your wants.

Their musical knowledge is not confined to mere familiarity with names and catalog numbers. Many are themselves very competent musicians.

Their acquaintance with the different classes of music and the many composers and artists enables them to be of genuine service to you.

You need never feel obligated to purchase. A record either pleases you or does not, and Aeolian Hall certainly does not wish you to purchase something you do not want.

It is simply a matter of discovering those records which will receive the warmest welcome in your own home.

Next subject in this paper: "Records on 48 hours' approval."

Five reasons why you should buy Columbia Records

- I Greatest durability or reproducing surface.
- II Quickest production of new popular music.
- III Distinct superiority of instrumental music.
- IV Moderate-priced operatic records by acknowledged leaders.
- V Price: 60c for ten-inch double-disc; $1.00 for twelve-inch double-disc; $2.00 to $3.00 for double-disc operatic records.

Five reasons why you should buy them at Aeolian Hall

- I Largest demonstrating rooms—second to none in quiet and comfort.
- II Salespeople whose musical education is not confined to store experience.
- III Arrangements may be made to purchase records on 48 hours' approval.
- IV Periodical submission of records on approval—delivered to your home.
- V The convenience of a charge account.

TWO of the most popular Columbia Gramophones are priced at $85 and $110. Each has an exclusive record filing device of unusual simplicity and convenience.
